Director of Children's Ministries

Position available immediately
15 hours per week
Salary to be negotiated

The ideal candidate for this position will have experience in working with children (K through 5th grade), and possess a real passion for helping children to grow in their spiritual journey with Jesus Christ. The Director of Children's Ministries is under the supervision of the Children and Youth Spiritual Formation Ministry and the Pastor(s).

The Director of Children's Ministries will coordinate, oversee and administer the following ongoing ministries and programs, and their adult lay volunteers:

- Sunday School
- Pathfinders
- Trailblazers
- Junior Church
- Vacation Bible School
- Retreats

In addition, the Director of Children's Ministries will:

- Participate in weekly staff meetings
- Meet monthly, submit monthly report to, and participate in the Children and Youth Spiritual Formation Ministry
- Submit weekly bulletin information in a timely manner
- Submit monthly newsletter (Tidings) information
- Effectively communicate with those who participate in the children's ministries and programs of the church
- Maintain proper record keeping
- Serve as a resource to the other ministries of the church as needed and when possible
- Work in coordination with the Director of Music Ministries in areas of overlap (Children's Choirs and Opening Exercises)
- Strive in word and deed, to be a worthy example in Christian living, through a life that is in harmony with the Word of God

Resumes with references should be submitted to Rev. Johnny Agurkis (see contact info above) by February 26th. Completion of CORI check is required for employment, as well as a signed employee agreement regarding child safety guidelines.
