This Is My Father's World #57

Verse 1

This is my Father's world,
and to my list'ning ears
all nature sings and round me rings
the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world;
I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas—
his hand the wonders wrought.

Verse 2

This is my Father's world:
O let us not forget that though the wrong is great and strong,
God is the ruler yet.
He trusts us with his world,
to keep it clean and fair—
all the earth and trees, all skies and seas,
all creatures ev'rywhere.

Verse 3

This is my Father's world:
God shines in all that's fair;
in rustling grass I hear him pass—
he speaks to me ev'rywhere.
This is my Father's world:
why should my heart be sad?
The Lord is King, let heaven ring!
God reigns; let earth be glad.

Though I May Speak with Bravest Fire #581

Verse 1

Though I may speak with bravest fire,
And have the gift to all inspire,
And have not love, my words are vain,
As sounding brass, and hopeless gain.

Verse 2

Though I may give all I possess,
And striving so my love profess,
But not be giv'n by love within,
The profit soon turns strangely thin.

Verse 3

Come, Spirit come, our hearts control,
Our spirits long to be made whole.
Let inward love guide ev'ry deed.
By this we worship and are freed.
